Introduction

In this guide, we'll explain how to setup the Solo Wearable app on a Samsung watch, using an Apple iPhone.

The models we'll be using are the Samsung Galaxy Watch and iPhone 11 running iOS 13, with Solo already installed and setup. You may see slight variations depending on the models you have, but the underlying process should remain the same.

Procedure Overview

This video covers the following steps:

- Downloading the Samsung Galaxy Watch app to the iPhone
- Pairing the watch to the iPhone
- Downloading and installing the Solo Wearable app

1. Download Samsung Galaxy Watch App

2. Pair Watch to iPhone

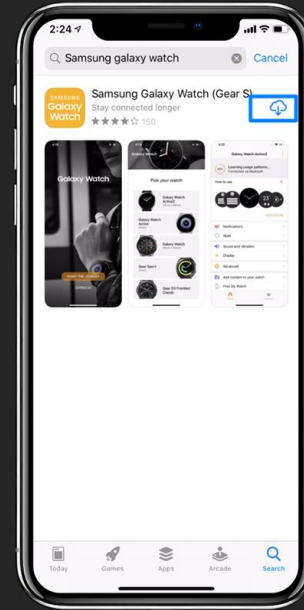

3. Download / Install Solo Wearable App

Download Samsung Galaxy Watch App

To Download the Samsung Galaxy Watch app, open the App Store on your iPhone and search for Samsung Galaxy Watch.

Download the app by tapping Get, or the Download icon if you've done this before.

Pair Watch with iPhone

Now it's time to pair the watch.

Turn it on and wait for it to indicate that it's ready to pair.

On your iPhone, launch the Galaxy Watch app and tap Start the Journey.

Find your model of watch in the list and tap it.

After a short time, the Phone will detect the Watch and ask if you'd like to connect to it. Your watch should also be prompting you to confirm the connection, so go ahead and confirm on both.

Next, the app will check for available backups from any Samsung Watches that you've previously used that you might want to restore from.

If this is your first time doing this, no backups will be found and you can skip this step.

Next, you'll be asked whether you'd like the watch to display notifications on your Watch.

These include notifications from Solo as well as other things such as text messages, so choose Allow.

Next, we need to make sure the watch has access to making and receiving phone calls via a bluetooth connection to your phone. This is critical for the emergency calling function to work.

Leave the Samsung Galaxy app and go to your iPhone's Settings app.

Then, select 'Bluetooth'.

Download / Install Solo Wearable App

The Galaxy Store will now open, which is where we will find the Solo app and watchface.

In the Search dialogue, type Vault Solo. Under the Apps tab, tap to download the Vault Solo app.

If you receive a popup notification talking about connecting to Wifi, tap Not Now, then tap again to Accept and Download, noting the permissions that will be given to Solo to access the resources it needs from your Watch.

Download / Install Solo Wearable App

Next, we recommend installing at least one Solo watch face. These can replace the pre-installed watch faces, and provide quick access to some of Solo's key features including the ability to raise an alert right from the watch face.

Once installed, long press on the existing watch face and swipe until the Vault Solo one is found, then tap to select it.

Next Steps

Now that the Solo app and watch face are installed, it's time to register the app to your Solo account.

You'll find help with this and other Solo Wearable procedures in the Support Portal.
